

English Country Dancing in Rochester, NY

- Regular weekly dance
 - Every Sunday evening (except 5th Sundays) year-round, 6:30—9:30 PM, casual attire, no partner needed, all levels of experience welcome. Newcomer orientation at 6:10 PM. There are occasional departures from the regular schedule—check our web site before you come.
- Jane Austen Ball Weekend: May 4 & 5, 2019
 - On Saturday, an afternoon Ball practice, a potluck, and an evening experienced dance featuring both modern English dances and old favorites.
 - On Sunday, a morning Ball dance review followed by a luncheon, then an afternoon Ball with costumes from Jane Austen's time, period English dances, and delicious refreshments. Joanna Reiner Wilkinson calls to music by Elegant Echoes in an elegant, spacious hall with a great floor.
 - Pre-registration required. Registration opens in February.
- Netherfield Ball: Saturday, August 25, 2018
 - Oriented to novices, but many regular dancers come too. Beginner level instruction, easy Ball dances, elegant refreshments, and vendors of Regency accessories.
- Masquerade Ball: Saturday, October 27, 2018
 - A fun filled costume Ball, beginner friendly, the weekend before Halloween. Proceeds benefit the English dance series.
- Turning of the Year Ball: Sunday, December 30, 2018
 - An elegant, dressy affair celebrating the coming of the new year. No registration limits this year—we're holding it in our spacious regular dance location.
- Demonstration group—the Meryton Assembly Dancers
 - Performs in period costume at various events during the year and encourages audience participation. More at dancelikejaneausten.com

We enjoy wonderful live music at all of our events.
Full information at our web site, www.CDRochester.org